

Pete is an Illinois licensed home inspector and a member of the American Society of Home Inspectors with over 25 years experience in residential home remodeling. As an alumni of Northern Illinois University and Iowa State University, Pete not only has a construction background, but an educational polish as well. With over 4,000 inspections under his belt, Pete is highly experienced and qualified in the home inspection industry. Pete has been trained for 7 years in home energy use analysis and is currently certified by Resnet as a level II HESP Home Energy Survey Professional.